WHERE FORESTS GLOW: DANG FIREFLIES FESTIVAL CAMPING

Step into the heart of Dang's mystical forests, where nature writes poetry in light. As twilight falls, the woods awaken with a surreal glow — thousands of fireflies dance in silent harmony, turning the forest into a living constellation.

Dang is a nature-rich gem nestled in the Sahyadris, often wrapped in drifting clouds and echoing with the sounds of hidden cascades and waterfalls. Especially during the monsoon, the region transforms into a lush, emerald paradise — alive, vibrant, and endlessly enchanting.

This is not your usual camping trip. It's a rare, fleeting phenomenon that can only be witnessed for a few magical weeks each year. Sleep under a canopy of stars, wake up to the songs of the wild, and immerse yourself in the quiet wonder that screens can't recreate.

Beyond the glow, it's the little moments that stay with you — the warmth of a campfire, the hush of the forest, shared laughter under open skies. In these woods, time slows down, and everything feels a little more real. Disconnect to reconnect — with nature, with yourself, and with the glowing magic of the night.
